Israel (Unite against Terror)

Thank you for contacting me about recent terror attacks in Israel.

The people of Israel deserve to live free from the threat of terrorism, with which they have had to cope for too long, and I know the Government shares this view.

Recent attacks here and abroad have shown that we need to respond to new trends in the threat we face, as new perpetrators copy other terrorists often using very crude and basic weapons and tactics. Terrorism breeds terrorism and the Government remains determined to work with our international partners on security co-operation in order to defeat those who resort to acts of terror.

I would like to assure you that the UK continues to stand with Israel against terrorism and is quick to condemn acts of terror when they occur. The Minister for the Middle East strongly condemned the attack in Jerusalem on 14 July and offered his condolences to the victims and their families.

Thank you again for taking the time to contact me.

Kind regards,
